EXPERIENCEVisiting InstructorDepartment of Psychology*

Franciscan University of Steubenville (Steubenville, OH)

August 2023-present

I currently teach full-time in the psychology department, teaching PSY/THE324 Human and Spiritual Integration, which is a course integrating psychology and Christian humanism, and PSY105 General Psychology, an introductory psychology class.

Adjunct Professor*Departments of Psychology and Theology*

Franciscan University of Steubenville (Steubenville, OH)

August 2022-May 2023

I taught one section of PSY/THE324 Human and Spiritual Integration, a course in contemporary Psychology and Christian Humanism. The course takes an interdisciplinary approach designed to critically examine attachment theory, human relationships, normative behavior, human perspectivity, faith experiences, Christian conversion, and overall, Catholic anthropology.

High School Theology Teacher

North Catholic High School (Cranberry Township, PA)

August 2022-June 2023

I taught full-time at a Catholic high school of about 680 students. I taught five sections of 11th grade students, facilitating growth in the students intellectually, personally, and spiritually. The class was broken into two courses; the first semester being Sacraments, and the second semester being Morality.

Research Lab Manager/Research Associate II*The Relationships Lab*

Carnegie Mellon University (Pittsburgh, PA)

June 2021-August 2022

I managed all operational aspects of the lab, including, but not limited to: 1) enrolling and training up to 25 undergraduate students per semester to run experiments, operate physiological equipment, and perform behavioral coding, 2) recruiting, scheduling, and compensating all participants as they progress through the multi-phase study protocol, and 3) coordinating communication for all studies conducted by the lab and maintain positive rapport with participants to guarantee retention for follow-up studies.

Research Assistant*The Relationships Lab*

Carnegie Mellon University (Pittsburgh, PA)

Summer 2019, Summer 2020

Under the supervision of Dr. Brooke Feeney, I assisted in conducting various psychological studies looking at adult attachment in relation to emotional/instrumental support-seeking and support-giving. I helped develop and distribute questionnaires used in a longitudinal study involving married couples, with a particular focus on understanding reasons for and effects of divorce with relation to attachment.

Research Assistant

Department of Psychology

George Mason University (Fairfax, VA)

Summer 2020

Under the supervision of Dr. Lauren Kuykendall, I assisted in the research portion of a doctoral dissertation studying the relationship between supervisor support in the work setting and physical/mental recovery. My main responsibility was to help develop a multi-dimensional scale to be distributed during a later stage of the dissertation research project.

Research Assistant

CUA Family Lab

Catholic University of America (Washington, DC)

September 2019-March 2020 (cut short due to COVID-19 Pandemic)

Under the supervision of Dr. Marcie Goeke-Morey, I worked as part of a team in the CUA Family Lab conducting research on the flourishing of the family, the effects of mindfulness in a family setting, and the psychological significance of experiencing gratitude. Most of my work consisted in performing literature reviews in preparation for upcoming research studies.

Mental Health Counselor

Beverly Hospital Emergency Department (Beverly, MA)

Summers, 2017-2018

Working in the Behavioral Health Unit of the Emergency Department, I worked alongside doctors and nurses in direct contact with patients. My main responsibility was to communicate with and de-escalate patients as needed. I provided practical and emotional support to a variety of patient types, including the highly depressed and/or anxious, the severely intoxicated, or those struggling with disorders such as personality disorders or schizophrenia.

Lab Assistant

Behavioral Neuroscience Lab

Franciscan University of Steubenville (Steubenville, OH)

August 2016-May 2017

Under the supervision of Dr. Stephen Sammut, I assisted in the Behavioral Neuroscience Lab with experiments testing and observing animal subjects. In addition to lab upkeep, I helped conduct data input and analysis while learning basic research techniques and methodology.

PRESENTATIONS

Stueve, Z., & Storm Gallagher, J. (April, 2019). Why am I like this? How self-esteem in college students is conditioned by gender, family dynamic, and religiosity. Poster presented at the “Gallery of Research, Art, and Community Engagement” (GRACE) at Franciscan University of Steubenville, Steubenville, OH.

OTHER WORK EXPERIENCE

Bartender/Server

Wigle Whiskey Distillery (Pittsburgh, PA)
September 2021-August 2022

I worked primarily as a bartender in the restaurant portion of a craft whiskey distillery. Along with taking and delivering both food and drink orders, I was responsible for explaining and describing the different liquors that the distillery produces.

Bartender

Capital Yacht Club (Washington, DC)
January 2020-March 2020

I prepared and served alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages, as well as serving food for patrons. I interacted frequently with club members, forming relationships with them and ensuring excellent service.

Youth Retreat Facilitator

Franciscan LEAD (Steubenville, OH)
Summer 2019

As part of a team of 4-5 ministers, I helped facilitate two full-week retreats for 25-45 high school youth leading up to Steubenville Youth Conferences in Steubenville, Ohio and San Diego, California. In addition to leading workshops, I provided to them personal and emotional support, particularly in difficult life situations.

Non-Profit Coordinator

SENT Ministries (Steubenville, OH)
December 2017-May 2019

While in college, I oversaw a small non-profit organization that facilitates 40 Christian youth retreats annually across the Northeast and Midwest. In addition to being responsible for a $40,000 budget, I managed a team made up of 20-30 core team members and 180 missionaries, providing to them practical, emotional, and spiritual support.

Resident Assistant

Franciscan University of Steubenville (International Campus in Gaming, Austria)
Fall 2017

I was responsible for the welfare of 65 males on an international campus, helping them to adjust to life changes in a foreign country. During my weekly duty nights and my occasional duty weekends, I helped students manage both major and minor problems with which they were currently dealing.

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Mission Trip Leader/Missionary

St. James, Jamaica

I served on three Winter Break (10 days) mission trips (2017-2019) to the poor and special needs in small towns. In 2019, I was selected to be leader of the team of 22 missionaries.

Medical Mission Trip Missionary

Ahuano, Ecuador

I served on two Spring Break mission trips (2017, 2019) to provide medicine and basic healthcare to the sick and needy in remote villages.
